

THE ELLENSBURGH CAPITAL

August 29, 1889

CAPITOLIANS

Kittitas apples, pears and plums are selling in the city at good prices. Dr. A. M. MUSSER has been declared insane and was sent to Stellacom. (Steilacoom in Pierce County.> J. M. MALONEY is building two cottages on the corner of Sixth and City Park. Mount Stewart again shows its clear cut lines after a total eclipse of about six weeks.

(Transcriber's Note: The fire that burned down most of Ellensburg had been on July 4, also fires burned Seattle and Spokane this same summer.) The new Congregational Church is under cover and is being pushed ahead energetically. J. C. LLOYD has purchased four lots in Grand View, and purposes building a fine residence this fall. GASS & RAMSAY's store was entered by a burglar on Monday night... Geo. B. HENTON's new dry goods store on Fifth and Pine is being furnished with a fine assortment of goods. SANDERS has purchased CRAIG's interest in the Capitol Hill water works and now has exclusive control. The Big Bend trade continues active and every day large train loads of goods leave the city for that section. The Misses SCHNEBLY will give a party to their young friends at the residence of their grandparents, south of the city, this evening. The scaffolding on the FOGARTY building gave way yesterday afternoon, injuring J. W. BROOK, E. L. BOMP, E. G. JORDAN, and T. CARR. Lanlord JACKSON informs ... that the Moffitt House doors will be thrown open about the 5th of Sept. if he don't have any bad luck. Mr. STEVENSON has been trying his new guns on the wild ducks ... in the Yakima River... Rev. Geo. A. TEWKSBURY will be installed pastor of the Plymouth Church at Seattle on the 10th of Sept. and Rev. R. J. MOONEY of Ellensburg, has been invited to deliver the charge to the pastor. The Wheeler reflector system of lighting, which consists of a concave mirror, has been adopted by the Congregational Church. Two have been ordered, and they will be the first introduced in Washington.
