LOCAL ITEMS

Prosecuting Attorney McFALLS has been to Wenatchee this week. FILER and CHARLTON's thresher threshed 958 bushels of wheat and oats in one day's run at Wm. CAHOON's ranch. Mrs. N. M. CHAFFEE, a former resident of this city, was in the city this week in attendance at the meetings of the Christian Endeavor. Okanogan county, according to the assessors census, contains 2548: of this number 744 are married, and 1804 are single. There are 753 miners. J. A. GRAHAM and M. MARCUSON of Chelan left here last week for their mining claims in the Chelan district. A load of very fine peaches from the Wenas was brought to the city this week. They were sold at 3 1/2 cents per pound. CHARLTON and FILER have laid up their thresher for the season. They have threshed 21,000 bushels of wheat, oats and barley. W. B. PRICE's four children have been laid up with scarlet fever, but we are pleased to learn that they are all rapidly recovering. The Jersey cows imported by J. D. GASS are of the best butter families in America. The increases of herd for sale. Jess HOWARD is in jail at Colville for horse stealing. He was arrested on WALKER's prairie. He was caught driving horses off of the reservation. There will be preaching in the Congregational church, Sunday, Oct. 9th, at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. by Rev. M. A. STARR. The fruit gathering, canning and drying is in full blast at Okanogan SMITH's orchard. Owing to the scarcity of help, several tons of peaches are rotting on the ground. The Black Warrior in the Chelan district owned by KINGMAN & PERSHALL has been bonded for $28,000 by a man named FERGUSON. Mr. FERGUSON represents a company that owns a group of mines in the same neighborhood. O. B. CASTLE's pet eagle got tired of being confined to the house and flew against the glass over the door in the rear room of the saloon. He sailed down Wilson creek. Several men followed to catch him or shoot him if he cannot be captured alive. On Monday night, Sept 26th, from the stable of James L. WEYTHMAN, 7 miles from Wentachee up the Wenatchee river, one bay horse, saddle and bridle. The horse will weigh about 1050; branded with a letter P on left hip; white strip in face; one white hind foot. A liberal reward will be paid on return of the horse or for information leading to his recovery. James L. WEYTHMAN

HORSE LOST - $10 REWARD

Lost in July last a bay horse branded on left shoulder with a figure S with a half circle over it and on the right shoulder with the letter P with a bar across it. Any person who will bring him in to Chris SENNER's feed yard will receive $10. The horse was raised on the IMBRIE ranch in Yakima county. Chris SENNER, Ellensburg, Wash., Sept. 21, '92
