GRAIN STACKS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Fire believed to have been of incendiary origin, between nine and ten o'clock last night, destroyed 15 stacks of grain, estimated to contain about 2500 bushels, on the farm of Charles BRAY, nine miles north of Ellensburg. The loss is placed at considerably over $5000, with insurance amounting to $5000 with the Northwestern Mutual Fire Insurance Company. The belief was general this morning that I.W.W. activities were responsible for the fire. The farm is at present occupied by Mr. LEINHARD, Mr. BRAY's father-in-law. Mr. BRAY is working at the mill of the Peshastin Lumber company, north of Blewett Pass. According to Everett TAYLOR, a neighbor, his attention was called to the fire shortly after 9:30 last night, and he immediately rode over to the BRAY place to find the 15 stacks burning evenly...
